Century Savings Bank Supports Resources for Independent Living

VINELAND, NJ (May 12, 2017) – Century Savings Bank (CSB) recently participated in the Resources for Independent Living Inc.’s (RIL) Annual Puzzle Piece Campaign. During the month of April, puzzle pieces were available for purchase at all six of the bank’s branch locations. Through the generosity of Century Savings Bank staff and customers, a total of $1,000.00 was raised that will assist in offsetting costs related to educational and behavioral programs run by the Center such as Equine, Speech, Lego and Music therapy, and other recreational activities for children with disabilities.

“Resources for Independent Living in Salem County serves as the region’s premier resource for individuals and their families living with disabilities,” said Lisa Killion-Smith, Executive Director of Resources for Independent Living, Inc. “Our partnership with Century helps support our mission to give families a one-stop approach to therapies, treatments, and the support needed to live full, independent lives.”

“As a true community bank, we remain committed to supporting organizations like Resources for Independent Living, as they address the needs of individuals living with disabilities within the communities we serve,” said Deborah A. Holman, Vice President of Marketing at Century Savings Bank.
