

CONTACT

Deborah Holman

856.378.5030

dholman@centurysb.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 21, 2016

Century Savings Bank Supports the Salem County Center for Autism

VINELAND, NJ (April 21, 2016) – Century Savings Bank recently participated in the Salem County Center for Autism’s Annual Puzzle Piece Campaign. During the month of March, puzzle pieces were available for purchase at the Bank’s Cumberland and Salem County offices. Century Savings Bank is proud to announce that it has raised a total of $1,600 that will assist in offsetting costs related to educational and behavioral programs run by the Center such as Equine, Speech therapy, and other recreational activities.

“The Salem County Center for Autism at Resources for Independent Living serves as the region’s premier resource for individuals and their families living with autism,” said Debra Behnke, Executive Director of the Salem County Center for Autism. “Our partnership with Century helps to support our mission to give families a one-stop approach to therapies, treatments, and the support needed to live full independent lives.”

“As a true community bank, we remain committed to supporting organizations like the Salem County Center for Autism, as they address the needs of individuals living with disabilities within the communities we serve,” said Deborah A. Holman, Vice President of Marketing at Century Savings Bank. “The Salem County Center for Autism has proven to be a vital resource for those families who are impacted by Autism Spectrum Disorder.”

About Century Savings Bank

Based on strong, traditional values and local decision-making, Century Savings Bank is dedicated to being the premier financial services provider in the area, focused on the changing needs of people and business in our communities by providing the highest level of quality service.

Now in its 150th year, Century Savings Bank began as a small mortgage association in downtown Bridgeton in 1865. It is now a full-service community bank with six locations in the heart of South Jersey. In addition to the main office in Vineland, Century Savings Bank maintains branches in Upper Deerfield, Vineland (two offices), Elmer, Mullica Hill, and Gibbstown. Century Savings Bank offers a full line of products and services, including online banking and bill pay, mobile banking, and cash management services to meet all consumer and commercial banking needs. For more information, please visit us online at www.centurysb.com.

About Resources for Independent Living /The Salem County Center for Autism

The Salem County Center for Autism (SSCA) at Resources for Independent Living opened its doors in 2008 and became the first of its kind in Salem County. The SCCA's mission is to provide education and resources to residents in the Salem, Gloucester, Cumberland County and surrounding region allowing children and their families to find answers, support, as well as relief from the stress and confusion that comes from a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder.

For more information about RIL/SCCA visit: www.rilnj.org.

Photo Caption: Members of the Century Savings Bank Upper Deerfield Office, support the Salem County Center for Autism Puzzle Piece Campaign.