Century Savings Bank Offers Home Buying Tips to Consumers:

June is American Housing Month

VINELAND, NJ (May 27, 2016) – In recognition of American Housing Month, Century Savings Bank is providing consumers with valuable housing information throughout the month of June. Tips for both renters and homeowners will include choosing the right housing option, getting a loan, improving your credit report, going green and saving for a down payment.

“As the housing market gets into full swing, we want to work with our customers to find the housing option that is best suited for their current lifestyle and financial situation,” said Peter Bertram, Senior Vice President of Lending. “As we celebrate America’s housing choices, Century Savings Bank will provide tips and tools to support our customers, whether they choose to rent or buy.”

Throughout the month, Century Savings Bank will provide a variety of resources to help educate consumers on the issues and options of housing. These materials will cover the following topics:

- Choosing your first home
- Improving your credit
- Developing a budget
- Saving for a down payment
- And more...
