Century Savings Bank Promotes Jillian Spena to Vice President/Director of Human Resources

VINELAND, NJ (Monday, March 13, 2017) –Century Savings Bank (CSB) announced today the recent promotion of Jillian L. Spena, PHR, SHRM-CP to Vice President/Director of Human Resources.

Spena has been with the bank for two years and has more than six years of industry experience. As the Director of Human Resources, Spena will be responsible for the planning, organization and implementation of all key human resource activities for the bank, including salary and benefit administration, employee relations, talent acquisition and regulatory compliance.

“Jill has been a great addition to the Bank’s management team”, remarked David J. Hemple, President and Chief Executive Officer. “We look forward to her continuing contributions to the growth of Century Savings Bank.”

“I am thrilled that my hard work has been recognized by Century’s board of directors”, said Spena. “I am looking forward to continue working for a successful company-oriented organization where I can apply my knowledge and expertise, helping to carry our success farther into the future.”

Spena maintains her Professional in Human Resources certification (PHR) through the Human Resources Certification Institute as well as her Certified Professional status (SHRM-CP) from the Society of Human Resources Management. She is currently pursuing her MBA with a concentration in Human Resource Management from Goldey-Beacom College in Delaware.

Spena is also an active member of the Human Resources Association of Southern New Jersey and the New Jersey Bankers Association HR committee.
