Century Savings Bank Adds Jones and Rothman to Lending Team

VINELAND, NJ (April 4, 2016) – Century Savings Bank announced today that it has added two new members to its growing lending team. Bringing with them over 40 years of combined banking and lending experience, Ronda Jones joins Century as Vice President/Credit Officer and H. Michael Rothman as Vice President/Commercial Loan Officer.

In her new capacity, Jones will be responsible for overseeing the bank's credit department, mentoring junior credit analysts and enhancing the bank's current local decision-making abilities. "I am proud to be joining one of America's oldest banks. Not only has Century provided local and personal service for over 150 years, but they are also dedicated to giving back to the community," says Ronda Jones, Vice President/Credit Officer.

Rothman will be responsible for developing and maintaining commercial lending and business deposit relationships, while generating new business opportunities that will further expand the bank's commercial construction loan program. "With its broad mix of banking products, superior customer service, and active participation in bettering the communities it serves, Century is a vital financial pillar of this community. I'm excited to be joining their lending team and look forward to contributing to the bank's continued success," said H. Michael Rothman, Vice President/Commercial Lender.

“We are pleased to have these two talented individuals joining our team,” said Peter Bertram, Senior Vice President of Lending. “Ronda’s expertise in credit analysis and risk mitigation, and Michael’s experience in commercial and construction lending, as well as cultivating business relationships are welcome opportunities for Century’s continued growth.”

Both Jones and Rothman will be based at the bank’s corporate headquarters located at 1376 W. Sherman Avenue in Vineland.
